Coach Mark Pope emphasizes defense to Kentucky's players.

Coach Pope says week off serves as a 'pathway' for Wildcats to get healthy

BY KEITH TAYLOR
KENTUCKY TODAY

LÉXINGTON — Kentucky gets a rare break this week to prepare for the remainder of the regular season.

The Wildcats (14-4, 3-2 Southeastern Conference) fell to No. 9 in this week's Associated Press' Top 25 poll following a 102-97 loss to No. 4 Alabama last Saturday. Pope said the one-week layoff gives his players, especially Lamont Butler and Andrew Carr, time to heal for the rest of the season.

"We have to take advantage of it and everybody's got one," Pope said. "Ours is probably coming at the best time for us in terms of finding a pathway to a little better health for our guys. I didn't think that was the determining factor of the game (against Alabama)."

Pope said the objective for this week is for his squad to "be fresh and for our guys to get fresh and to get healthy is going to be key No. 1, and we would also like to make some big strides of improvement."

In the loss to the Crimson Tide, Pope's first loss at Rupp Arena as coach of the Wildcats, he said his squad "felt so much on the table."

"There is so much room for us to grow," he said. "There (are) so many spaces where we can get better. In particular, playing this style of game. That's going to be the nature of the season. We played our first five games in the league against all teams in the Top 25. It's the nature of this league right now."

Kentucky gets a rematch against Alabama on Feb. 22 in Tuscaloosa. The remaining schedule features seven away games and six home contests, including a home-and-home against No. 6 Tennessee. Kentucky also hosts former Wildcats coach John Calipari and Arkansas on Feb. 1 and top-ranked Auburn a month later on March 1.

"The most important thing for us is we can't waste any energy or any time on nonconstructive things," Pope said. "It's a race to see how fast we can get better, and that's not easy. ... That's kind of the speed we have to go with this."

Pope is confident the Wildcats will bounce back Saturday at Vanderbilt. Kentucky is undefeated (3-0) in bounce-back games this season and, added the loss to Alabama served as a lesson, especially on the defensive end of the court for his team.

"The one thing our guys are good at is they are good at getting better and we will punish teams in the future that guard us like this even more than we did (against Alabama)," Pope said. "We just are not that far along. Every game gives you a new challenge and we just couldn't execute that space in the game."

"I've got beautiful guys, my guys are fighting for each other ... there is zero part of my guys that are in this (for themselves) at all. That doesn't exist at all. These guys are fighting for each other."

NEXT GAME: Kentucky at Vanderbilt, 2:30 p.m., Saturday. TV/Radio: ESPN, UK Radio Network.

Calipari preps for emotional return to Rupp Arena

BY CHRIS FISHER
CATS PAUSE

When the final buzzer sounded on Arkansas' 65-62 home loss to Oklahoma at Bud Walton Arena, all eyes immediately turned directly toward Lexington.

Because the Razorbacks have its midweek SEC bye, John Calipari's club won't play again until he returns to Kentucky to take on his former team Saturday at Rupp Arena.

Calipari made his first comments about returning to his old stomping grounds following Saturday night's loss to the Sooners.

"I'm still on this game but, yeah, there will be some emotion walking into that building, and really being in town. [I'll] probably get together with some of my friends," Calipari said. "They're playing good. We've got our hands full and let's see what happens. They're a good team. Mark's [Pope] doing a good job with them."

In his first season as Arkansas head coach, Calipari and the Razorbacks went 11-2 in the non-conference but lost five straight to open league play but rallied from a 15-point deficit to beat Georgia before falling at home to Oklahoma to drop to 1-6 in the SEC.

Freshman guard and one-time Kentucky signee Boogie Fland, who ranked in the top 15 in the SEC in scoring at 15.1 points per game and second in assists at 5.7 per game, was also lost for the year with a thumb injury.

"We just gotta to keep going, keep fighting, keep figuring this out," Calipari said. "What does this team look like? What do we have to play like?"

Saturday's game will also serve as a homecoming for former Wildcats Zvonimir Ivisic, Adou Thiero, DJ Wadner, and walk-on Kareem Watkins, who followed Calipari from Kentucky to Arkansas. Freshmen Khris Knox and Billy Richmond also signed with UK before following suit.

Calipari, who was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame in 2015, went 410-122 (.771) over 15 seasons as head coach at Kentucky with six SEC regular season championships, six SEC Tournament titles, four Final Four appearances and a national championship in 2012.

But after receiving a "lifetime" 10-year contract in the summer of 2019, Calipari went just 105-52 overall (.669), 1-4 in the SEC Tournament and 1-3 in the NCAA Tournament.

Since the NCAA Tournament expanded to 64 teams in 1985, Kentucky had been a perfect 19-0 vs. teams seeded 14 or lower but dropped each of their last two with losses to No. 15 seed Saint Peter's in 2022 and No. 14 Oakland.

The Wildcats didn't fare much better in the SEC Tournament, going just 1-4 in its last five games, including its first-ever 3-game losing streak in the SEC Tournament dating back to 1933. After winning six in a span of nine years, Kentucky hasn't won an SEC Tournament or even been to the finals since 2018.

All totaled, Calipari has lost 8 of his last 10 postseason games, didn't advance past the first weekend of the NCAA Tournament since 2019, didn't earn a No. 1 seed or advance to a Final Four since 2015.

Last season, Kentucky also suffered its first-ever 3-game losing streak at Rupp Arena dating back to 1976.

This season, first-year head coach Mark Pope has the Wildcats ranked No. 9 in the country at 14-5 overall with five top-15 wins. UK has been ranked in the AP top 10 for 10 consecutive weeks, its longest single-season streak since the 2016-17 season.

Trojans take wins over Hopkins Central, Union

BY ELLI PALMER
THE JOURNAL-ENTERPRISE

The Webster County Trojans hosted the Hopkins County Central Storm last Tuesday evening and won, 60-56. That win was huge for the Trojans, as the Storm had defeated them, 92-62, in early December.

The Trojans took the lead early and led, 13-9, after the first quarter. They built on that advantage and were up 29-17 at halftime.

The Storm cut into the lead in the third frame, but the Trojans were able to keep HCCHS at arm's length for a 46-42 cushion headed into the final eight minutes. The Trojans didn't let Central get any closer and held on strong in the fourth quarter to win the game, 60-56.

Aiden Alstadt led the Trojans in scoring with 14 points. Reid McDyer and Micah Austin each added 12, while Trace Hardison chipped in with nine. Evan Davis posted eight points, Caleb Bumpus three, and Rylan Cardwell two. McDyer and Alstadt led the team in rebounding, each pulling down six.

The Trojans took that momentum into their 6th District matchup at Union County Friday evening, where they beat the Braves, 72-65. UCHS was another team that defeated the Trojans earlier in season, as the Braves beat the Trojans, 84-45, on Jan. 17.

The Trojans led, 19-17, after the first quarter, and 35-30 at halftime. They were leading 57-51 at the end of the third quarter.

The Trojans were on fire from the 3-point line, hitting fifteen 3-pointers for the game (nine in the first half).

Austin led the team in scoring with 25 points, including four 3-pointers and 13 free throws.

Davis added 13 points, Alstadt 11, Hardison 10, McDyer and Kahner Phelps five apiece, and Cardwell three. Alstadt and McDyer each pulled down five rebounds.

Those two wins brought the Trojans to a current record of 7-13 (5-6 in region play and 1-2 in district play). The Trojans hosted Henderson County for a district doubleheader Tuesday evening. They host Ohio County Friday evening, and Trinity (Whitesville) Saturday.

Lady Trojans fall in pair of contests

BY ELLI PALMER
THE JOURNAL-ENTERPRISE

The Lady Trojans had a tough week as they lost two games.

Last Tuesday, they fought hard but could not get the victory at Whitesville Trinity, as the Lady Raiders held on to win, 64-60.

The Lady Trojans were led by 8th grader Addison Wright, who finished the game with a double-double of 19 points and 12 rebounds.

Hannah Yates and Jaycie Wright each added 13 points. Anna Dunn 10, Kaylyn Braden three and Calleigh Harper two.

Friday evening the Lady Trojans traveled to Union County for a 6th District rematch with the Bravettes. UCHS won the game, 61-34.

Webster County hosted Henderson County for a district doubleheader Tuesday evening in Dixon, and will travel to Ohio County for a doubleheader Friday. The Lady Trojans will host Trinity Saturday and Apollo Tuesday.

Georgia Amore ties UK scoring mark in win at No. 13 Oklahoma

BY CHRIS FISHER
CATS PAUSE

Georgia Amore made her name as an All-American at Virginia Tech. However, the fifth-year standout etched her name in the Kentucky record book on Sunday.

Amore made 15 of 22 shots from the field, including 7 of 12 from beyond the arc and 6 of 8 at the line on her way to a career-high 43 points as the 12th-ranked Cats beat No. 13 Oklahoma 95-86 on Sunday at the Lloyd Noble Center in Norman, Oklahoma.

Amore's 43 points tied the Kentucky school record for points in a game. Jennifer O'Neill had 43 points against Baylor on Dec. 6, 2013 and Rhyne Howard equaled that effort with 43 against Alabama on Jan. 9, 2020. In fact, Sunday's effort by Amore was the first time a Kentucky player had scored 40 or more points since Howard did so against Alabama. It was also just the seventh time in UK history that a player has scored at least 40 points in a game.

Kentucky (19-2, 8-1 Southeastern Conference) got 19 points from Clara Strack and 14 points from Dazia Lawrence in the win.

The Cats got on the board first when Strack scored but Oklahoma quickly tied the game at 2-2. Amore then drained a three-pointer to give UK a 5-2 advantage. The Sooners answered with a three of their own to tie the game at 5-5. The game would be tied again at 7-7 before the Cats scored six in a row, on baskets by Teonni Key, Strack and Clara Silva to lead 13-7.

Oklahoma got a basket to get within four, but UK got a basket from Amore, another from Lawrence and a three from Amore to close a 13-2 run and to lead 20-9. The Sooners answered with a 6-3 run to cut the deficit to 23-15. Kentucky made 12 of its 16 shots in the first quarter and took a 30-19 lead after 10 minutes of action.

In the second quarter, Oklahoma tried to chip away at the UK lead. The Sooners opened the period on a 6-3 run to get within eight, 33-25. However, UK scored seven of the next nine points to lead 40-27. The Sooners scored four straight to make it 40-31.

Amore then scored four in a row and Kentucky led 44-31. The Sooners would close the half on a 5-2 run but the Cats led 45-36 at the break. Amore scored
