MOTION TO PROCEED WITHOUT A HEARING

Comes now Warren County Water District (“Warren District”), by and through the undersigned counsel, pursuant to the Commission’s August 15, 2024 Orders in the above-referenced proceedings, and for its Motion to Proceed Without a Hearing respectfully states as follows:

Warren District filed its Application for an adjustment of its water rates (“Water Rate Proceeding”) on July 30, 2024, and its Application for an adjustment in its sewer rates (“Sewer Rate Proceeding”) on July 31, 2024. There are no intervenors in either proceeding. Commission Staff has issued, and Warren District has responded to, three (3) requests for Information in the Water Rate Proceeding.

Commission Staff has issued, and Warren District has responded to, four (4) requests for information in the Sewer Rate Proceeding.

In its August 15, 2024 Orders in these matters the Commission scheduled a formal hearing to be held on December 11-12, 2024. Warren District has no new information to provide the Commission at a formal hearing and waives its right to a formal hearing in both matters. However, Warren District will certainly appear and participate in a formal hearing if the Commission believes a hearing is necessary.

In lieu of a hearing in these matters, Warren District will gladly participate in an informal conference with Staff, should Staff find that an informal conference would be beneficial. Warren District can appear at such a conference in-person, or participate remotely, whichever Staff finds most convenient and expeditious.

WHEREFORE, on the basis of the foregoing, Warren District respectfully moves to proceed without a hearing in the aforementioned cases.

Dated: November 14, 2024

Respectfully submitted,
