Hutchison School Sting from Memphis, Tenn. Henderson County (26-8) advanced to the state quarterfinals last season, the fourth consecutive year that the Lady Colonels played multiple state tournament games. Hutchison School (18-3) is coming off a season in which the Sting — ranked as high as second in the state late in the year — reached the quarterfinals round of the Tennessee Division II state tournament.

The 5:30 p.m. contest has the Ft. Thomas Highlands Bluebirds going against the Bullitt Central Lady Cougars. Highlands (22-9) participated in the 2023 LIS and was a Region 9 semifinalist last season. Sixth Region school Bullitt Central (23-10) is coming off a strong 23-24 season in which it reached the quarterfinals of regional play. The host Allen County-Scottsville Lady Patriots battle the Grayson County Lady Cougars from Region 3 in the day's seventh game at 7:15. AC-S (12-18) reached the Region 4 tournament last spring — its first appearance in regional play since 2016. Grayson County (22-9) is appearing in its first LIS — a season after reaching the Region 3 semifinals. The final game of the day, scheduled for 8:45 p.m., has the Mercer County Lady Titans against the Russellville Lady Panthers. Mercer County (18-14) welcomes back veteran and state championship coach Chris Souder. Russellville (2-26) enters the 2024 season looking to rebuild following a season in which a young team struggled. The 2024 LIS field includes multiple teams coming off impressive 23-24 campaigns. The 2024 LIS includes the 2024 Kentucky High School Athletic Association state tournament runner-up (McCracken County), two KHSAA tournament quarterfinalists (Henderson County and Franklin County), and a Tennessee Secondary School Athletic Association (TSSAA) Division 2, Class A quarterfinalist (Hutchison School).

The LIS — one of the most prestigious in-season girls' tournaments in Kentucky during its heyday in the 1990s — was held annually from 1984 through 2008. Officials at AC-S discontinued the LIS in favor of an eight-team girls'/boys classic. In 2022, the decision was made to rebirth the LIS in its traditional 16-team, three-game guarantee format. Through the efforts of AC-S coach Greg Dunn, the Lady Patriot Basketball Booster Club, and tournament sponsors, this year's field will showcase outstanding student-athletes and tradition-rich programs from Kentucky and Tennessee.

AC-S, Henderson County, Ft. Thomas Highlands, Franklin County, Russellville, and South Laurel were in last year's field. First-time LIS participants are McCracken County, Grayson County, Scott, Portland, and Hutchison. Christian County, North Hardin, Bullitt Central, and Mercer County played in the LIS prior to 2008. Second round games will be on Saturday, Dec.

28 at Patriot Gym. On Sunday, Dec. 29, all games will have afternoon start times with two games played at the neighboring James E. Bazzell Middle School. Eight teams will advance to four final games at Patriot Gym on Monday, Dec. 30. The championship game is scheduled for 6 p.m. on Dec. 30. Team and player profiles, ticket information, and additional tournament press releases will be forthcoming as the tournament approaches. For more information as well, follow the Lady Invitational of the South on X (formally Twitter) or Facebook.

Presenting sponsors and associate sponsors include Halton, Dollar General, Studdle Financial Services, and CPC Commodities. Additional sponsorship opportunities are available. Contact Don Meador at ACSH for more information on sponsorship or volunteer opportunities for the tournament.

Leslie went on to describe The Exchange on Main.

"It is a shared retail space," she said.

"Local small businesses and vendors sell a variety of items in the store.

"We have locally raised beef and pork from Beauchamp-Alexander Farms, products from FMF Metal Works, Art by Ava Pottery, Top Me Off Hats, Rustic Oak Soaps, Nicks Boat Dock, The Bake Shop Bakery, Paint it Pretty (Rethink Junk Dealer), A cup of Tee (personalized and many designed shirts, etc.), Forsaken Books (used book store), Carissa's Calling (gifts, tees), a few different crochet vendors, higher end resale clothing, boutique clothing, costume jewelry and a variety of gifts that include yummy bread and dip mixes."

It's the perfect time to explore all the gift possibilities right here in Hardins-burg! The Exchange on Main is located at 215 S Main Street in Hardinsburg and open Tuesday through Friday from 10 to 5 and Saturday from 10 to 2.
