KPSC Case No. 2024-00344
Commission Staff's First Set of Data Requests
Dated December 10, 2024

DATA REQUEST

- KPSC 1_1 Refer to the Direct Testimony of Lerah M. Kahn (Kahn Direct Testimony), Figure LMK-1, page 6.
- a. Explain why IT Infrastructure – Billing and IT Infrastructure – Backhaul could not be undertaken once Kentucky Power receives the final Order authorizing the automated metering infrastructure (AMI) program or during the period when the meters are being ordered from the manufacturer.
  - b. Explain why Kentucky Power is waiting 9-12 months after receiving the final Order authorizing the AMI program to begin ordering the meters.

RESPONSE

a. The Company would begin updating its IT Infrastructure to support AMI immediately upon receipt of a final Order authorizing the installation of the AMI system.

b. The Company would begin ordering AMI meters soon after receiving a final Order in this case. Importantly, Figure LMK-1 is based on an Order being received by the July 2025 statutory deadline, not the Company's requested Order date. If an Order is received by February 28, 2024, all milestones in Figure LMK-1 would move forward.

Furthermore, the column to the right of the column labeled "Due Date" reflects the time to complete the task. For example, as it relates to ordering meters, the Company estimated it would take 9-12 months from the date the meters were ordered until they are received.

KPSC 1_3 Refer to Kahn Direct Testimony, page 10, lines 5-6. Explain the design life or useful life of the chosen AMI meters.

RESPONSE

The useful life of the chosen AMI meters is 20 years. The Company would note, other required infrastructure to support the AMI meters is expected to be 15 years. The useful life of the equipment is based off the design life provided by the manufacturer.

DATA REQUEST

KPSC 1_4 Refer to Kahn Direct Testimony, page 11, lines 3-6. Explain whether the lone vendor has given any indication that it is going out of business or plans to stop refurbishing automated manual read (AMR) meters. If so, provide any documentation indicating same.

RESPONSE

The lone vendor for the SCM+ platform has not provided any indication that it is going out of business. For clarification, the lone vendor for SCM+ does not provide refurbishing services. Those services are performed by a different company who has not indicated that they will stop refurbishing meters. That said, the Company is largely reliant on refurbished meters that have been removed as part of the Company's sister companies' AMI deployments and the supply of those meters will continue to be further limited as their AMI deployments are completed.

- KPSC 1_5 Refer to Kahn Direct Testimony, page 11, lines 16-19.
- a. Once an AMR meter has been refurbished and placed back into service, explain its then current design life.
  - b. For a refurbished meter placed back into service, explain how Kentucky Power will depreciate that meter.

RESPONSE

- a. If a meter fails before its 15-year design life and refurbishment is successfully able to put a meter back in the field, there is no extension to the 15-year design.
- b. AMR meters are placed in service upon purchase and are retired from the Company's books when they are no longer used. Therefore, meters that are being refurbished continue to be depreciated while refurbishment occurs.

1.0 INTRODUCTION

1.1 American Electric Power

Kentucky Power, headquartered in Ashland, Ky., provides service to approximately 162,000 customers in all or part of 20 eastern Kentucky counties.

Kentucky Power is part of the American Electric Power (AEP) system, which is one of the largest electric utilities in the United States, delivering electricity and custom energy solutions to nearly 5.5 million regulated customers in 11 states. AEP's headquarters are in Columbus, Ohio.

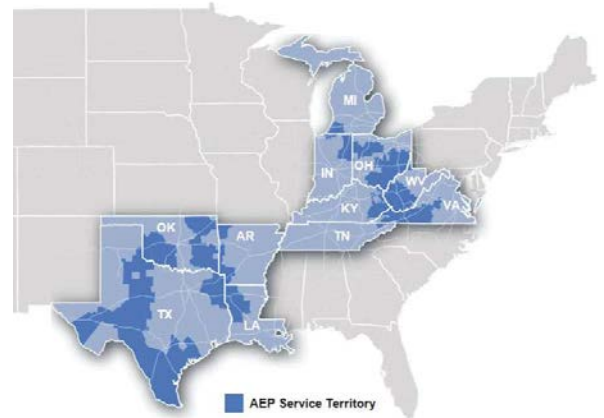

AEP owns the nation's largest electricity transmission system, a more than 40,000-mile network that includes more 765-kilovolt extra-high voltage transmission lines than all other U.S. transmission systems combined. AEP also operates 223,000 miles of distribution lines. AEP also is one of the nation's largest electricity producers with approximately 30,000 megawatts of diverse generating capacity, including more than 5,300 megawatts of renewable energy.

AEP Mission

Together, with our customers, we are redefining the future of energy and developing innovative solutions that power communities and improve lives.

A Culture of Innovation

At AEP, innovation has been part of the fabric of our culture for more than a century. Today, our sights are set on the next 100 years. AEP has dedicated teams working to identify, create and execute on opportunities at local and global levels. While we have come a long way in our innovation journey, we remain committed to leading the energy industry and providing customers with innovations that will power their 21st century needs.

Enterprise Security

Like all major infrastructure, the nation's power grid is subject to an array of threats, from naturally caused phenomena such as extreme weather to vandalism, domestic and foreign terrorism, and insider risks that jeopardize reliability, safety, and data security. The stakes are high; our response to an event affects our customers, our reputation, and the reliability of the power grid.

AEP continually evaluates cyber and physical security risks enterprise-wide using our risk management process, providing a comprehensive approach to understanding and managing these risks in relation to other enterprise risks. It also enables decision-making based on the level of acceptable risk, as well as our priorities and resources. Additional information about AEP's cyber and physical strategy can be found at www.aepsustainability.com/governance.

Supplier Diversity

AEP is committed to finding optimal Participants within the small and diverse business community. The Participant Diversity Team collaborates with AEP Procurement, economic development, and business partners to maximize opportunities for small and diverse businesses.

1.2 RFP Overview

This Request for Proposal (RFP) specifies the required capabilities and features of an Advanced Metering Infrastructure (AMI) system AEP wishes to acquire. Proposals will be used to demonstrate to the Kentucky Public Service Commission reasonable least-cost advance metering infrastructure (AMI) options.

2.0 SCOPE AND OBJECTIVES

2.1 High-Level Scope and Objectives

Kentucky Power is soliciting proposals for a cost-effective, technologically advanced (i.e., future proof) AMI solution to automate reading of electric revenue meters within its service territory in the state of Kentucky, as further described in this Section 2.0. The RFP scope includes the installation of AMI head-end software and communications infrastructure by the selected Participant.

With the new smart meters, Kentucky Power will improve accuracy in energy billing, outage detection and service restoration, and reduce costs associated with manual meter readings. The project will help the utility to keep consumer energy bills low through their participation in new energy efficiency and demand response programs.

AEP may choose a single supplier or may choose to assemble from proposals received an optimal solution combining multiple technologies. Participants may assume that, if such a combination is chosen, AEP will negotiate the details of integrating the multiple technologies with selected participants and will be prepared apply its substantial corporate expertise and resources to make the integration a success.

2.2 Capabilities

2.2.1 Planned Benefits

The planned benefits of the proposed AMI system include, but are not limited to:

- a. Reduced meter reading expenses from timely accurate electric meter readings for monthly billing and in support of time-based rates.
- b. Reduced labor expenses through the use of service switches and rapid communication to electric meters to verify power status and meter data.
- c. Enhanced customer experience.
- d. Improve outage detection and restoration efforts.

2.2.2 Meter Capabilities

AEP solicits your proposal for the delivery of meters equipped with AMI modules and internal service switches that will provide the capabilities, some of which are listed below:

- a. Standards based architecture including the utilization of ANSI C12 metering standards.
- b. End-to-end security protection from unauthorized access to all components and data within the AMI system.
- c. Daily delivery of metered consumption data to the AMI head-end
- d. 15-minute consumption data from all customer meters and storage of data within the meter for at least 45 days.
- e. Remote connection or disconnection of electric power to accounts served by self-contained single phase and network meters up to Class 200 with "load limiting" capability in circumstances where sustained disconnection is not desired.
- f. Reporting of tamper, meter alarms, power outage and restoration.
- g. Monitoring of power quality reporting: blink counts, phase, voltage, power factor, etc.
- h. Recording energy flow in both directions, in separate data channels, and calculating net usage for all residential meters to enable net billing for self-generators.

2.2.3 Software Capabilities

AEP seeks proposals for delivery and installation of head-end software, and AMI communications infrastructure that will, among other things:

- Remotely download (without a field visit to the meter) updates to meter settings, configuration (i.e. meters may be required to report 5 minute intervals for periods of time and then be reprogrammed to hourly or longer intervals), security settings, and firmware for all AMI devices.
- Communicate with devices at the customer premise including Programmable Communicating Thermostats (PCT), appliances such as pool pumps, load control devices, HVAC and display devices.
- Obtain meter data, such as consumption and power status, on demand and with a short duration of time from request to meter and back.
- Communicate with AMI meters and consumer owned control devices to enable load management.

2.2.4 Functional and Technical Requirements

The solution is expected to meet the functional and technical requirements outlined in Exhibit E.

2.2.5 Endpoint Deployment Schedule

While still subject to Commission approval, Kentucky Power anticipates a four-year deployment schedule for the 166,412 endpoints as outlined below:

Year	Approx. Meters Deployed
1	57,840
2	43,249
3	45,440
4	20,180

2.3 Current State

The information in this section is provided for participants to better understand the assets, systems and/or processes at AEP that could impact or be impacted by the AMI effort. This information should be taken into consideration when determining the level of scale and resources required to meet the scope and objectives outlined in Section 2.2.

APPENDIX 3: CAPITALIZATION REQUIREMENTS FOR CLOUD SERVICES

Incorporating the AEP capitalization requirements listed below in the executed master services agreement, with a capable cloud Participant, gives AEP the opportunity to utilize categorize applicable services as a capital expenditure (as opposed to O&M). Capital expenditures are commonly used by companies to undertake new projects and are important to the growth of utilities like AEP.

6.1 AEP Capitalization Requirements for Cloud Services

To meet AEP Accounting requirements, the pricing structure and agreement must allow the following rights to possession:

Customer may, at its discretion, take possession of the Software without incurring significant cost or significant diminution in utility or value of the Software, at any time during the Service Term upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice to Vendor. In the event Customer exercises such option, Customer shall (a) enter into a separate hosting services agreement with another third party services Vendor selected by Customer and approved in writing by Vendor whose approval shall not be unreasonably withheld and (b) be responsible for managing and operating the Software for the remainder of the Service Term.

6.2 Guidelines and Clarifications

- a. AEP requires ownership of the data, not the application.
- b. The data would be stored at an AEP facility data center, AEP cloud or third-party cloud. AEP must have the option because it depends on the available space at the time the migration would need to occur.
- c. Taking possession refers to AEP having the option to host this solution on premise or on a public cloud provider environment owned by AEP, and if it were to occur, AEP would need the system artifacts to do so.
- d. There is a remote possibility of this happening (e.g. Participant were to go out of business) but we need the Participant to agree and comply with the language above to be able to adhere to current policies.
- e. The Participant would not be expected to carry out all actions necessary to run the solution on premise or with a third party.

No delay in performance resulting from a Force Majeure Event shall result in any liability on the part of Owner. The extension of time granted as a result of a Force Majeure Event shall in no case exceed the length of the delay and such extension may be withheld or reduced to the extent Consultant does not provide notice in accordance with Section 26.1. If Owner so requests, Consultant shall expedite its schedule to mitigate the effects of the excusable delay.
