In the Matter of:

ELECTRONIC INVESTIGATION OF NUCLEAR)	CASE NO.
ENERGY, GENERATION, STORAGE, AND)	2025-00186

LOUISVILLE CLIMATE ACTION NETWORK, INC ERRATA NOTICE FILING

The Louisville Climate Action Network, Inc. (“LCAN”), by counsel, provides notice of an error (described below) in the LCAN Nuclear Economic White Paper (“White Paper”) filed into the record in the instant case on February 17, 2026.

Following the filing of the White Paper, LCAN discovered a scrivener’s error (in lay terms, a “typo”) in the White Paper. The error has been corrected in the attachment filed with this notice. Specifically, the correction (for page 15) is depicted below.

Since Vogtle Units 3 and 4, which created significant unanticipated and ongoing rate hikes for utility customers, is the most recently deployed nuclear power generating facility in the United States it’s not unfair to assume that the next completed nuclear power facility may [~~not~~] exact a similar financial toll.

The pertinent section has been corrected to state:

Since Vogtle Units 3 and 4—which created significant unanticipated and ongoing rate hikes for utility customers—are the most recently deployed nuclear power generating facilities in the United States, it’s not unfair to assume that the next completed nuclear power facility may exact a similar financial toll.

In addition to the (above) correction, the attachment contains additional punctuation and spelling corrections. LCAN notes that there have been material developments in the nuclear power sector since the filing of the White Paper with the Commission (such as the Nuclear Regulatory Commission’s authorization of a construction permit for the Kemmerer Power Station Unit 1 on March 4, 2026¹). LCAN is not, at this stage, presenting a comprehensive revision of the White Paper to discuss additional developments, but LCAN will instead wait until later in this proceeding to comprehensively update the White Paper as part of its briefing and/or contributions to the record prior to the close of the proceeding.

WHEREFORE, LCAN tenders this Errata Notice Filing with a revised White Paper.

Respectfully submitted,
