

EXHIBIT

13

A list of all commercially available or in-house developed computer software, programs and models used in the development of the schedules and workpapers associated with the filing of the utility’s application are listed below.

SOFTWARE	DESCRIPTION
MS Excel	MS Excel was used by the Company to formulate their budget information and was used to complete the various schedules for the financial requirements of the filing. MS Excel is an electronic spreadsheet application manufactured by Microsoft Corporation.
MS Word	MS Word was used to prepare testimony and other miscellaneous schedules. MS Word is an electronic word processing application manufactured by Microsoft Corporation.
MS SharePoint	SharePoint was used for cloud file storage and collaboration. SharePoint is a document library cloud-based application manufactured by Microsoft Corporation.
Adobe Acrobat DC	Acrobat was used by the Company to create and manage Portable Document Format (PDF) files. Acrobat is a universal document exchange application and is manufactured by Adobe Systems.
Oracle Netsuite	Netsuite was used for integrated suite of applications to manage core business functions such as financials and accounting records. Netsuite is a cloud-based enterprise resource planning platform owned by Oracle. It provides an integrated suite of applications to manage core business functions such as financials and accounting.
Muni-Link	Muni-Link was used to capture billing, payment, and customer account information and records. Muni-Link is cloud-based utility billing system for municipalities and utility providers. It handles billing, payments, and customer account management.
Computer Hardware	Microsoft Surface Pro 7 (Various Specifications) Windows 11 Professional & Microsoft 365 Lenovo Computers (Various Models) Apple Macbook Pro and Apple Macbook Air