Nicholas County, Kentucky

HEELSTONE
RENEWABLE ENERGY

June 22, 2026

Billie R. & Jois June Newman
572 Tarr Road
Paris, KY 40361

Dear Billie R. & Jois June Newman,

We are contacting you as a nearby landowner to the proposed South Fork Solar Project. We invite you to learn more about the project at a public information meeting with details provided below:

Public Information Meeting Details

Date: Monday, July 6, 2026
Time: 5:00 P.M. - 7:00 P.M. (Join us during this time whenever is convenient for you – come and go as you please. Light refreshments will be provided.)
Location: Nicholas County Public Library – Community Room
223 North Broadway Street
Carlisle, KY 40311

South Fork Solar is a proposed 45-Megawatt solar project located near Carpenter Pike Road and Miller Station Road, scheduled to be operational in late 2029. This location is south of the proposed location for the Nicholas County Industrial Park. The project is expected to be developed over 250 acres of the leased project acreage.

South Fork Solar is being developed by Heelstone Renewable Energy. Heelstone Renewable Energy is a leading utility-scale renewable energy independent power producer that has developed 73 projects across the country since our founding in 2012.

Our projects not only provide domestically sourced, reliable energy, but also support economic development, adding value to the communities we support. This could be through capital investments, new tax revenues, and active partnerships with community programs. We look forward to identifying opportunities to be a good neighbor with feedback from you.

We would love to see you at our meeting to both listen to you and answer any questions you may have about our team and project. If you are unable to attend but would still like to connect, please contact me directly at the information provided in my signature below.

We look forward to seeing you at the meeting!

Sincerely,

ENCOURAGEMENT THAT TAKES YOU HIGHER
Proverbs of Truth

The truth of Heaven prepares a heart for the highest form of education in word and spirit. The Bible is an instruction book of sustaining hope and captivating experiences that positions the heart for more hunger of truth. I pray these verses of scripture burn the blessed hope of a greater search into the eternal depths of the heart of God. Have you ever been so hungry for truth that you crave its reality more than your next breath? Well, this chapter is a good place to start happy reading and believing! I encourage you to make it a habit to read the Bible as it will point you in the wise direction of heaven and reveal to you the truth about Jesus Christ life and death and resurrection.

Proverbs 15~ KJV

15 A soft answer turneth away wrath: but grievous words stir up anger.

2 The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright: but the mouth of fools poureth out foolishness.

3 The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.

4 A wholesome tongue is a tree of life: but perverseness therein is a breach in the spirit.

5 A fool despiseth his father's instruction: but he that regardeth reproof is prudent.

6 In the house of the righteous is much treasure: but in the revenues of the wicked is trouble.

7 The lips of the wise disperse knowledge: but the heart of the foolish doeth not so.

8 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord: but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

9 The way of the wicked is an abomination unto the Lord: but he loveth him that followeth after righteousness.

10 Correction is grievous unto him that forsaketh the way: and he that hateth reproof shall die.

11 Hell and destruction are before the Lord: how much more then the hearts of the children of men?

12 A scorner loveth not one that reproveth him: neither will he go unto the wise.

13 A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance: but by sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken.

14 The heart of him that hath understanding seeketh knowledge: but the mouth of fools feedeth on foolishness.

15 All the days of the afflicted are evil: but he that is of a merry heart hath a continual feast.

16 Better is little with the fear of the Lord than great treasure and trouble therewith.

17 Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox and hatred therewith.

18 A wrathful man stirreth up strife: but he that is slow to anger appeaseth strife.

19 The way of the slothful man is as an hedge of thorns: but the way of the righteous is made plain.

20 A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish man despiseth his mother.

21 Folly is joy to him that is destitute of wisdom: but a man of understanding walketh uprightly.

22 Without counsel purposes are disappointed: but in the multitude of counsellors they are established.

23 A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth: and a word spoken in due season, how good is it!

24 The way of life is above to the wise, that he may depart from hell beneath.

25 The Lord will destroy the house of the proud: but he will establish the border of the widow.

26 The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the Lord: but the words of the pure are pleasant words.

27 He that is greedy of gain troubleth his own house; but he that hateth gifts shall live.

28 The heart of the righteous studieth to answer: but the mouth of the wicked poureth out evil things.

29 The Lord is far from the wicked: but he heareth the prayer of the righteous.

30 The light of the eyes rejoiceth the heart: and a good report maketh the bones fat.

31 The ear that heareth the reproof of life abideth among the wise.

32 He that refuseth instruction despiseth his own soul: but he that heareth reproof getteth understanding.

33 The fear of the Lord is the instruction of wisdom; and before honour is humility.

Freedom of Religion

The new country was materializing and certain freedoms were being sought. One of these freedoms was religion.

Freedom of religion is a fundamental human right that protects an individual's right to think, believe, and practice their faith (or lack thereof). It encompasses the freedom to change one's religion, worship publicly or privately, and express beliefs without government interference, coercion, or discrimination.

In places like the United States, this concept is grounded in the First Amendment and operates on two distinct, core principles:

The Establishment Clause: the government can't establish an official religion or promote religion over non-religion.

The Free Exercise Clause: the government can't stop you from practicing your faith.

Although Virginia had adopted the principle of freedom of religion in its Declaration of Rights in 1776 and again in the Virginia Statute for Religious Freedom in 1786, Baptists still faced persecution during the early statehood period, particularly when they preached to mixed congregations of freemen and slaves, white and black. In these years, Baptists encouraged planters to free their slaves; and numerous slaves were freed in the Upper South during the first two decades after the Revolution. As more Baptists began to accept the institution of slavery, many of those who opposed slavery began to move west, often to the area that would later become Kentucky.

Elijah Craig (November 15, 1738 – May 18, 1808) was an American Baptist preacher, who became an educator and capitalist entrepreneur in the area of Virginia that later became the Commonwealth of Kentucky. He has sometimes, although rather dubiously, been credited with the invention of bourbon whiskey.

Seeking religious freedom and economic opportunity, in 1781 Elijah Craig's brother Rev. Lewis Craig led an exodus of up to 600 people known as "The Travellng Church" (composed of his parents, younger siblings, and most of his congregation from Spotsylvania County) to the area of Virginia known as Kentucky County (they were the largest single group to so migrate).Elijah Craig did not go with this group but followed a few years later.

Located at the junction of Silas and Collins Pikes in Bourbon County, Kentucky, Silas Baptist Church was officially organized on August 30, 1800. It holds the distinction of being the oldest continuously running church in Bourbon County.

In 1796, twenty members withdrew from the Rev. Lewis Craig's church and relocated to Bourbon County, leading to the creation of a separate congregation.

In 1799, Charles Smith deeded the land for the church. The congregation built its first small log structure in 1801, which featured a balcony for enslaved individuals, a rear pulpit window, and a closet to hold important papers.

Others were drawn to the west (Kentucky County, Virginia) seeking places to worship. Dutch settlers (originating from the Netherlands and Germany) came to Mercer County, KY in 1781 from Conewego, Pennsylvania in search of better land. In time, they were followed by others from the Conewego Colony as well as from the Dutch Reformed mother church in New Jersey. With growing numbers, a house of worship was needed. Just three miles from Harrodsburg, on the Dry Branch of the Salt River, incredibly skilled Dutch craftsmen went to work designing and building what would one day be known as Old Mud Meeting House.

This vertical log building with mud and straw panels between the logs is one of the most historic and architecturally important buildings in Kentucky. Built in 1800, this was the first low Dutch Reformed Church west of the Allegheny Mountains; it has been used continually as a church for various denominations until quite recently. Adjacent to the church is the graveyard where rest the ashes of Revolutionary War soldiers who moved to Mercer County.

Bread of Life

John 1:1 In the beginning was the word and the word was with God and the word was God 2 The same was in the beginning with God. There are people that challenge God's word. It would be ignorance to say the word is not God. John 1:1 plainly tells us "the word was with God and the word was God" John 1:14A says "And the word was made flesh and dwelt among us." God has given every man a chance to believe Him. It is so simple even a child can see it. The Bible says He has hidden it from the wise and prudent. Matthew 11:25 At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of Heaven and Earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes. Revelation 19:13 And He was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood and His name is called "The Word of God". Satan came to deceive you. Don't let Satan deceive you, Believe God. Believe the word of God. Revelation21:8 But the fearful, and unbelieving and the abominable, and murderers and whoremongers, and sorcerers and idolators, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone; which is the second death. Colossians 1:23 If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under Heaven; wherefore, I Paul am made a minister. Jesus is the beginning and the ending. The only way the devil can defeat you is to pressure you into throwing away the word. Everything the enemy brings you is intended to make you doubt the word of God. Don't let Go of the Word. Believe it, Receive it, and you will have Victory in Jesus. Revelation 1:8 I am the Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.
