SPRINT'S STATUS REPORT

Sprint Communications Company L.P. ("Sprint"), by counsel, submits its status report in the above-captioned matter.¹

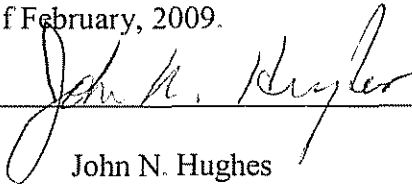

Sprint and Brandenburg have each responded to the other's data requests and Sprint has recently provided clarification to Brandenburg on one of its data request responses concerning Sprint's methodology for determining whether traffic is considered intrastate or interstate for purposes of calculating the PIU factor. The parties have held a telephone conference call to discuss the potential for settlement of this case.

From Sprint's perspective, there has been no substantial progress to date in reaching a settlement and based on recent discussions Sprint believes it is unlikely the parties will be able to reach settlement. It is Sprint's understanding that Brandenburg does not believe there presently is a basis for further settlement discussions. However, Sprint remains willing to continue discussions, if Brandenburg indicates an interest in doing so and believes a settlement is still possible. If negotiations continue, a hearing in this matter should not be scheduled within 60 days. However, if Brandenburg does not indicate a willingness to continue negotiating, Sprint respectfully requests that the Commission schedule a hearing to be held within the next sixty days.
