REQUEST NO. 1: Refer to the questions in the Appendix of the Commission Order dated April 14, 2009.

- a. Are you proposing as part of this case to revise the allocation methodology that you currently use to pass through EKPC's environmental surcharge to your retail customers? If yes, identify the revised allocation methodology you propose to adopt and the specific retail rate classes that will be subject to the revised allocation methodology.

RESPONSE: No.

REQUEST NO. 1: Refer to the questions in the Appendix of the Commission Order dated April 14, 2009.

- b. Have the customers that are proposed to be billed under the revised allocation methodology been notified of the proposed change? If yes, provide a copy of the customer notice.

RESPONSE: Not applicable.

REQUEST NO. 1: Refer to the questions in the Appendix of the Commission Order dated April 14, 2009.

- c. State whether a change to your retail allocation methodology for billing the environmental surcharge will require a change to the existing language in your environmental surcharge tariff and, if so, provide a statement showing, with cross-outs and italicized inserts, all proposed changes. A copy of the current rate schedule can be used to show the proposed changes.

RESPONSE: Not applicable.
