

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY
BEFORE THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

In the Matter of:

LEGAL QUALIFICATIONS OF TONI AKERS AND)
MICHAEL LITAFIK TO CONTINUE TO SERVE AS) CASE NO. 2009-00209 COMMISSIONERS OF MOUNTAIN WATER) DISTRICT)

ORDER

Toni Akers and Michael Litafik (“Respondents”) have individually requested a one-month postponement of the July 2, 2009 hearing scheduled in this matter. Having reviewed the requests and finding insufficient information in the requests to rule upon them, the Commission HEREBY ORDERS that:

1. Each Respondent shall separately file with the Commission no later than June 29, 2009 a written explanation as to why the “4th of July holiday” prevents his or her attendance at the scheduled hearing on July 2, 2009. This explanation shall identify the previously scheduled event(s), the location of the event(s), and the reasons or circumstances that prevent the rescheduling of such event(s).

2. Each Respondent shall separately set forth in writing and file with the Commission no later than June 29, 2009 a list of the business days between July 6 and July 31, 2009 on which he or she is unavailable to attend a hearing in Frankfort, Kentucky, the reasons for his or her unavailability on each listed day, and the reasons why the conflicting event cannot be rescheduled. If “vacation plans” are the stated reason for a Respondent’s unavailability, a description of the “vacation plans” shall be provided, to include the vacation destination and any hardships and financial or monetary losses resulting from revisions in those plans.
