Public Information Officer,

Yes I am a Single Father trying to make a living, i was laid off over 10 1/2 months in 2009. I'm finally back to work but there is not one day goes by im guaranteed a job. Im just getting back on my feet and a raise in my aep bill will be a very big hurdle in my life im just barely getting by now. I know gas, electric and water is a necessity in todays world. All thru the economic melt down they didn't once offer to lower rates and now that were on a slow rebound there wanting a 35 Percent raise. i think its to early for a raise for most all kentucky residents including me were living paycheck to paycheck now and it is hard enough trying to make it without our bills raising. please help all of us if you can.

Thanks
