Case No. 2010-00131

SECOND JOINT MOTION TO HOLD PROCEEDINGS IN ABEYANCE
FOR TWO WEEKS PENDING SETTLEMENT NEGOTIATIONS

Petitioner Cricket Communications, Inc. (“Cricket”) and Respondent BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. d/b/a AT&T Kentucky (“AT&T Kentucky”) respectfully move the Commission to hold this docket in abeyance until July 22, 2010, so that the parties may continue to focus their attention on concluding ongoing settlement discussions. The parties further state as follows:

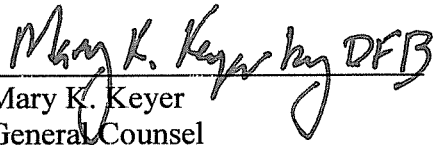

1. Pursuant to a joint motion by the parties, the Commission entered an Order on June 29, 2010 suspending the procedural schedule. The Commission ordered the parties to inform the Commission on July 8, 2010 that they have either settled their differences or request that the Commission decide the two threshold issues that have been briefed.

2. AT&T Kentucky and Cricket have continued their settlement discussions and are very close to an agreement in principle. Once an agreement in principle is achieved, the parties will proceed to document the agreement, which will take additional time.

3. Accordingly, the parties respectfully request that the Commission hold the schedule in abeyance for two additional weeks, until July 22, 2010. On or before that date, the parties will inform the Commission that either they have settled their differences and this docket can be concluded, or that the threshold issues should be decided.

WHEREFORE, Cricket and AT&T Kentucky respectfully request that the Commission hold the current schedule in this docket in abeyance as described above.

Respectfully submitted this 9th day of July, 2010.
