RE: Proposed Kentucky Power rate increase case number 2011-00401

To Whom It May Concern:

Even though this past Winter was very mild, people have really struggled to pay their power bills. With rising gas and food prices coupled with high unemployment, this is not the time to add an extra burden on your customers. With the ready reliable coal resources we have, rates are already too high.

A Concerned KY Power Customer,

Joe Anderson
