All,

On December 30, 2011, the DC Circuit Court of Appeals stayed the EPA's Cross-State Air Pollution Rule. Please find the attached Memo including a brief summary of the court's actions and the court order.

APM will continue to monitor the status of the DC Circuit Court of Appeals process and update APM Members as needed.

Please forward this email on internally as needed.

If you have any questions please let me know.

Thanks and happy New Year!
