ORDER

On March 11, 2019, the Commission initiated this show cause proceeding against Dean Hall, general manager of Southern Water and Sewer District (Southern District), for his alleged violation of statutes and regulations enforced by the Commission. The March 11, 2019 Order, among other things, scheduled a hearing in this matter for Wednesday, May 8, 2019. On May 2, 2019, Mr. Hall resigned his position with Southern District.<sup>1</sup> Based on the Commission's finding that prima facie evidence existed regarding the alleged violations, a civil penalty against Mr. Hall would have potentially been assessed had he not resigned.

Based upon the case record and being otherwise sufficiently advised, the Commission finds that the May 8, 2019 hearing should be canceled, and that the subpoena for Greg May and the subpoena duces tecum for documents maintained by Pop's Chevrolet, Buick, and Cadillac, Inc., should be withdrawn. The Commission further finds that this case should be dismissed without prejudice. If, in the future, Mr. Hall accepts employment from a jurisdictional utility, the Commission may re-open an investigation into the alleged violations.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that:

1. The May 8, 2019 hearing in this matter is canceled.
2. The subpoena issued for Greg May is withdrawn.
3. The subpoena duces tecum issued to Pop's Chevrolet, Buick, and Cadillac, Inc., is withdrawn.
4. This case is dismissed without prejudice.
5. This case is closed and removed from the Commission's docket.
