Subject: JP Energy rate increase

Jackson Purchase Energy has requested a 15 (Fifteen) percent residential rate increase. This, at a time when ratepayers are fortunate if they get a 1, 2, even 3 percent annual increase in their personal incomes, means JPEnergy wants 10 or 12 times that amount for its coffers. This co-op last year chose to move to expansive new headquarters when its former campus was adequate. Many cringed, wondering if a day such as this (15%) was coming. I urge you to curtail this money grab. Also: when JP Energy published a notice of proposed "adjustment" to retail rates, the electronic address it printed for the PSC was, according to my email system, invalid and my correspondence would not submit.

Respectfully,
Karl S. Harrison
