Good morning,

Per my last email, I requested more time for a response in regards to a complaint I filed. I stated I had been out of state. I have had a matter that has been in need of my attention until April 2nd, which I returned from over this weekend. I returned to find a conclusion mailed to me stating a decision was made. I didn't receive via mail, or email, a deadline as to my extension period. What further steps can I take to respond to this matter? Thank you for your time.
