Comments: To the Kentucky Public Service Commission The current solar project has been devastating for our environment. Fields where Elk once grazed have now been covered with pointless solar panels and fenced off. No longer will men travel to Martin county in the fall to rabbit hunt on our beautiful lands. No longer will outdoor enthusiasts be able to ride ATV and UTVs across Wondrous open Mountain tops and have the Chance to see Hundreds of wilds horses. Life can be hard in the mountains. These open spaces give people a place to escape and reset. They've already taken a huge area from us. Please don't allow them to take more. Us "Hillbillies" don't have a lot, don't take one of the only things God gave us. Our ability to be free. To take the mountains from the Mountain man is liken to killing him. Stand with the people of Eastern Ky and stop any further development of our Wildlands. Sincerely Cpl Elijah Sartin, USMC Retired
