Dear Council Members,

I oppose the proposed permit for a solar energy farm. While solar energy is indeed a sound idea, we do not need such an installation off Winchester Road in rural Fayette County.

For reasons that are beyond obvious, I support only agricultural development outside the urban boundary line. Lexington is, as you know, the horse capital of the world, and this solar farm would detract from the rural charm of this neighborhood. Tourists not coming for basketball games drive our country roads to see the equine industry in all its bucolic glory. They want to see horses during on their trip, not solar panels. Let's save the solar energy farms for the outer counties!

For this reason, I oppose this solar farm. I'm a registered voter and an engaged constituent interested in preserving, not developing, our precious Bluegrass.

Sincerely,

Dr. Mark W. Russell
