State the nature of your concern: Shanon Elam is a complete hack. You can obviously tell the entire reason why the water company is in such bad shape is because of such bad management. Any job Shannon has been a manager of has went under. Or they was smart enough to get rid of him before the company completely tanked his own dad bought a gas station to give him and his brother a job and it went under. During the hearing did no one notice that Shannon was given almost a double pay in a raise?? And come on hire 5 people you can't afford?? And then everyone has a truck. Please. The only person that should drive a truck home is who ever is on call. Shannon shouldn't even get a car to drive! And 7,000 in greens fee for a golf tournament. That's a little ridicules!! It's not fair for the people of Morgan county to have to pay for his bad leadership skills
