Subject: Objection to Proposed Rate Increases – Case No. 2025-00114

Dear Public Service Commission,

I am writing as a concerned customer of Louisville Gas and Electric (LG&E) to formally express my objection to the proposed rate increases outlined in Case No. 2025-00114.

These rate hikes would create an unnecessary financial burden on households, especially at a time when many families are already facing higher costs for food, housing, and other basic needs. Utilities are essential services, and continued increases make it more difficult for many people to afford consistent access to heat, electricity, and safe living conditions.

I urge the Commission to consider the impact on working families, seniors, and individuals with fixed incomes. Instead of approving these increases, I encourage further scrutiny into LG&E's costs and profits, and ask that the Commission protect consumers by rejecting or significantly reducing the proposed rate adjustments.

Thank you for your time and for considering the voices of everyday Kentuckians.

Sincerely

Nicole Smith
Of Louisville Kentucky
