Dear Public Service Commission,

You folks running the PSC are smart. Please utilize those smarts to realize that costs continue to climb for ordinary consumers—especially those on fixed incomes. You, as a Kentucky state organization, should be aware that many rely on federal assistance that is being stripped away to provide tax breaks for the very wealthy.

We can't afford to pay more. Especially when LG&E-KU isn't seriously working to improve energy efficiency and other programs that actually help people lower their bills, while also cutting our ability to invest in low-cost rooftop solar that would reduce the need to build expensive power plants in the future.

Please reconsider these rate hikes that will line the pockets of the 'C' suite at the expense of hard working Kentuckians.

John Perry III
