Subject: Duke Energy Rate Increase

Good day,
I've been a Northern Kentucky resident all my life. I was shocked that a company that is considered a staple in the area feels no hesitation to squeeze its fellow KY residents for every penny they have. $175 million in addition revenue. The average salary for a family in KY is between $78k and $95k. How exactly is that "creating value for customers." Honestly, you people are shameless. Worst storm season we've had for years and the most tumultuous past 6 years in peoples' lives and you increase their utilities. You've managed to reposition your company to a cornerstone of our community to yet another leach and I'm making it my mission to make sure every member of the community knows who is responsible for making their lives harder.

Thanks for your time.

Brycen
