Dear PSC Commissioners,

I am Zachary Tackett, a Kentucky Power residential customer in Pike County. My grandparent is on fixed income, and many neighbors here face the same hardship from your recent approval of Kentucky Power's 6% rate increase.

Your order requires a management audit of Kentucky Power. To restore trust in Eastern Kentucky, I demand:

1. Public posting of the audit scope, including scrutiny of affiliate costs, management decisions driving rate hikes, and cross-subsidies to projects outside our region.
2. At least one public input meeting in Pike County (not just Frankfort), so ratepayers can shape questions and review findings.
3. Plain-language release of the full audit report, followed by a hearing on applying savings to rate relief.

Without this transparency, audits are just for show. Act for Pike County families.

Sincerely,

Zachary Tackett

Shelby Gap KY 41563
