

Louisville Gas and Electric Company

P.S.C. Gas No. 11, Original Sheet No. 106.1

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Gas Main Extension Rules

7. Company will install at its own expense a service pipe of suitable capacity extending from its gas main to the customer's property line beyond which point all necessary piping shall be installed by and at the expense of the customer and in a manner acceptable to Company.
8. Company will install at its own expense the necessary meter together with the regulator required to convert from medium pressure to service pressure. When a high pressure gas line is tapped to serve a customer or group of customers, Company may charge the customer or customers for the estimated installed cost of the tap, any regulation equipment, piping, and any other equipment or facilities determined by Company, in its sole discretion, to be necessary to provide such service consistent with good operating practice.
9. In the event Company is required to make a further extension of its mains to serve a customer, Company reserves the right to tap any extension constructed under these rules and to make connections from such additional extensions without application of the refunds referred to in paragraph 4 or 6 above.
10. The title to all extensions herein provided for, together with all necessary rights-of-way, permits and easements, shall be and remain in Company.
11. Company shall not be obligated to make service connections or to extend its gas mains in cases where such extensions or connections, in the sole judgment of Company would be infeasible, impractical, or contrary to good operating practice, or where such extensions are not in accordance with the terms of the applicable rate schedule.
