curtailment of each priority applicable to Customer as described in said sheets of this tariff. Such curtailment shall be ordered as to the affected Commercial and Industrial Customers.

Company shall not be liable for any loss, cost, damage, injury, or expense that may be sustained by Customer by reason of partial or complete curtailment, interruption or discontinuance of gas service.

31. Purchased Gas Adjustment Clause

The Customer rates authorized herein are based upon the wholesale cost of gas to the Company as computed by its supplier delivered at the pipeline meter station. For the purpose of this purchased gas adjustment clause, this rate shall be considered as the base rate for purchased gas. In the event there is an increase in this base rate, the Company shall file with the Kentucky Public Service Commission the following information:

- a. A copy of the tariff effecting the change in the base rate and a statement relative to the effective date of such proposed change;
- b. A statement setting out the details of gas purchased under the provision of the base rate for the previous 12 months showing the billing under the base rate and under the proposed revised rate applicable to this service;
- c. A statement setting out the details of gas sold for the previous 12 months;
- d. A balance sheet as of the end of the latest 12 month period and a statement of operating expenses and revenues in the same detail as reported to the Commission in the Company's annual report; and

32. Local Franchise Fee or Tax.

There shall be added to the Customer's bill, as a separate item, an amount equal to the proportionate part of any license, occupation, franchise, or other similar fee or sales tax now or hereafter imposed upon Company by state and local taxing authorities, whether imposed by ordinance, franchise or otherwise, and which fee or tax is based upon a percentage of the gross receipts, net receipts, or revenues of Company. Such amount shall be added exclusively to bills of Customers receiving service within the territorial limits of the authority imposing the fee or tax. Where more than one such fee or tax is imposed, each of the fees or taxes applicable to each Customer shall be added to the Customer's bill as a separately identified item.

In the event all or any part of such tax liability is not finally determined, or if reimbursement from Customer has been deficient, then the amount of such reimbursement required in respect of such tax liability not finally determined or deficient shall, when possible, be set forth for all months in any calendar year(s) in a statement to be rendered by Company to Customer by April 1, of the year following the final determination and Customer shall pay the amount due pursuant to such statement on or before May 1, of such following year.

Customers receiving service in the following municipalities or political subdivisions shall pay a local franchise fee or tax based on the following effective rates:
