Access Order service dates for the installation of new services or rearrangements of existing services may be changed, but the new service date may not exceed the original service date by more than 30 calendar days. When, for any reason, the customer indicates that service cannot be accepted for a period not to exceed 90 calendar days, and the Telephone Company accordingly delays the start of service, a Service Date Change Charge will apply. If the customer requested service date is more than 30 calendar days after the original service date, the order may be canceled by the Telephone Company and reissued with the appropriate cancellation charges applied unless the customer indicates that billing for the service is to commence as set forth in 5.2.3 (A) following.

A new service date may be established that is prior to the original Standard or Negotiated Interval service date if the Telephone Company determines it can accommodate the customer's request without delaying service dates for orders of other customers. If the service date is changed to an earlier date, the customer will be notified by the Telephone Company that Expedited Order Charges as set forth in (D) following will apply. Such charges will apply in addition to the Service Date Change Charge.

5.5 Access Order Standard Intervals

The Standard Intervals, as set forth following, will be used for all Access Orders for Special Access Services of the same channel type with the same requested service date and all Switched Access Services with the same type Interface Group, channel type, and/or Feature Group with the same requested service date. (C)

The Standard Intervals are subject to the following conditions:

- The Standard Interval is the sum of the intervals from (1) the Application Date (APP) to the Design Layout Report Date (DLRD) and, (2) the Confirming Design Layout Report Date (CDLRD) to the Service Date (DD). These dates are defined in 5.2.1(C) preceding.
- The period between the Design Layout Report Date (DLRD) and the Confirming Design Layout Report Date (CDLRD) is controlled by the customer, but is agreed upon by the customer and the Telephone Company prior to the Application Date. This period is limited to a maximum of 20 days.
- Service dates for items and services not included in the Schedule of Standard Intervals will be negotiated.
- Regardless of how many separate orders are placed at the same time for service between the same locations and with the same service date, if 25 or more services of the same type are involved as described preceding, the interval will be considered as negotiable even though separate orders reflect quantities that qualify as Standard Intervals.
- When the provision of Switched Access Service requires the installation of a new high capacity premises interface of the type specified for Interface Groups 6 through 9, the interval will be considered negotiable. (C)
