RULES AND REGULATIONS

23. Provision to Provide Free Water to Fire Departments.

1. The Company shall provide free water to the fire departments recognized by the fiscal courts of their respective counties for the purpose of fire fighting and training for fire fighting. Any other water used by fire departments shall be metered and paid for to the Company.
2. Each fire department shall report the actual amount (or best estimate) of water used for fire fighting and training to the Company on a quarterly basis even if no water is used. A fire department that fails to file the quarterly reports on a regular basis will have their use of free water rescinded until they come into compliance.
3. Reports shall be made on forms provided by the Company. If no water is used during a quarter, a report is still required.
