Jonathan Creek Water District (Name of Utility) CANCELLING P.S.C. KY. NO. RULES AND REGULATIONS W. Leak Adjustments. A customer may make a request for a bill adjustment in the evolution of the following conditions: 1. The customer must request a leak adjustment in writing to the utility. 2. The customer must request a leak adjustment in writing to the utility. 2. The customer's average monthly usage over a twelve-month period. The second store deduct the customers average monthly usage (as calculated in the above) from amount of water that passed through the meter. The usage calculated in step billed at the utility's regular rates, while the remaining usage will be charged through algolno leak adjustment rate, as set forth in the rates and charges poutility's approved tariff. All water passing through the meter must be accounted by the customer. So the customer will owe the amount of his/her average bill throusand gallon leak adjustment rate for the remainder of the water that passed meter. 3. If meter readings are not available for an entire twelve-month period, the water estimated by the utility, subject to an upward or downward adjustment once a twaverage of actual meter readings can be calculated. 4. Only one (1) leak adjustment will be made per twelve-month period. 5. When a leak is found to be on the customer's side the District will notify the cust leak has been found. The customer will not be entitled to a leak adjustment the full amount of the bill.	3
 (Name of Utility)	•
 RULES AND REGULATIONS W. Leak Adjustments. A customer may make a request for a bill adjustment in the evolunder the following conditions: The customer must request a leak adjustment in writing to the utility. The customer's bill will be based on two components. The first step will be to a customer's average monthly usage over a twelve-month period. The second step deduct the customers average monthly usage (as calculated in the above) for amount of water that passed through the meter. The usage calculated in step billed at the utility's regular rates, while the remaining usage will be charged thousand gallon leak adjustment rate, as set forth in the rates and charges pountility's approved tariff. All water passing through the meter must be accounted by the customer. So the customer will owe the amount of his/her average bill thousand gallon leak adjustment rate for the remainder of the water that passed meter. If meter readings are not available for an entire twelve-month period, the water estimated by the utility, subject to an upward or downward adjustment once a twaverage of actual meter readings can be calculated. Only one (1) leak adjustment will be made per twelve-month period. When a leak is found to be on the customer's side the District will notify the cust leak has been fixed or the customer then has ten (10) days to present to the District the leak has been fixed or the customer will not be entitled to a leak adjustment the full amount of the bill
 W. Leak Adjustments. A customer may make a request for a bill adjustment in the evaluater the following conditions: 1. The customer must request a leak adjustment in writing to the utility. 2. The customer's bill will be based on two components. The first step will be to a customer's average monthly usage over a twelve-month period. The second step deduct the customers average monthly usage (as calculated in the above) from amount of water that passed through the meter. The usage calculated in step billed at the utility's regular rates, while the remaining usage will be charged thousand gallon leak adjustment rate, as set forth in the rates and charges potulity's approved tariff. All water passing through the meter must be accounted by the customer. So the customer will owe the amount of his/her average bill thousand gallon leak adjustment rate for the remainder of the water that passed meter. 3. If meter readings are not available for an entire twelve-month period, the water estimated by the utility, subject to an upward or downward adjustment once a twaverage of actual meter readings can be calculated. 4. Only one (1) leak adjustment will be made per twelve-month period. 5. When a leak is found to be on the customer's side the District will notify the cust leak has been found. The customer then has ten (10) days to present to the District the leak has been fixed or the customer will not be entitled to a leak adjustment the full amount of the bill 	. under the following conditions: 1. The customer must request a leak adjustment in writing to the utility. 2. The customer's bill will be based on two components. The first step will be to a customer's average monthly usage over a twelve-month period. The second sted deduct the customers average monthly usage (as calculated in the above) from amount of water that passed through the meter. The usage calculated in step billed at the utility's regular rates, while the remaining usage will be charged thousand gallon leak adjustment rate, as set forth in the rates and charges produtility's approved tariff. All water passing through the meter must be accounted by the customer. So the customer will owe the amount of his/her average bill thousand gallon leak adjustment rate for the remainder of the water that passed meter. 3. If meter readings are not available for an entire twelve-month period, the water estimated by the utility, subject to an upward or downward adjustment once a twaverage of actual meter readings can be calculated. 4. Only one (1) leak adjustment will be made per twelve-month period. 5. When a leak is found to be on the customer's side the District will notify the cust leak has been found. The customer then has ten (10) days to present to the District the leak has been fixed or the customer will not be entitled to a leak adjustment the full amount of the bill
 The customer's bill will be based on two components. The first step will be to a customer's average monthly usage over a twelve-month period. The second step deduct the customers average monthly usage (as calculated in the above) from amount of water that passed through the meter. The usage calculated in step billed at the utility's regular rates, while the remaining usage will be charged throusand gallon leak adjustment rate, as set forth in the rates and charges por utility's approved tariff. All water passing through the meter must be accounted by the customer. So the customer will owe the amount of his/her average bill thousand gallon leak adjustment rate for the remainder of the water that passed meter. If meter readings are not available for an entire twelve-month period, the water estimated by the utility, subject to an upward or downward adjustment once a two average of actual meter readings can be calculated. Only one (1) leak adjustment will be made per twelve-month period. When a leak is found to be on the customer's side the District will notify the cust leak has been fixed or the customer will not be entitled to a leak adjustment the leak has been fixed or the customer will not be entitled to a leak adjustment the full amount of the bill 	vent of a le customer's average monthly usage over a twelve-month period. The second stededuct the customers average monthly usage (as calculated in the above) from amount of water that passed through the meter. The usage calculated in step billed at the utility's regular rates, while the remaining usage will be charged thousand gallon leak adjustment rate, as set forth in the rates and charges por utility's approved tariff. All water passing through the meter must be accounted by the customer. So the customer will owe the amount of his/her average bill thousand gallon leak adjustment rate for the remainder of the water that passed meter. 3. If meter readings are not available for an entire twelve-month period, the water estimated by the utility, subject to an upward or downward adjustment once a two average of actual meter readings can be calculated. 4. Only one (1) leak adjustment will be made per twelve-month period. 5. When a leak is found to be on the customer's side the District will notify the cust leak has been found. The customer then has ten (10) days to present to the District the leak has been fixed or the customer will not be entitled to a leak adjustment the full amount of the bill estimated by the utility, subject to an upward or downward adjustment once a two average of actual meter readings can be calculated. 4. Only one (1) leak adjustment will be made per twelve-month period. 5. When a leak is found to be on the customer's side the District will notify the customer has been found. The customer then has ten (10) days to present to the District the leak has been fixed or the customer will not be entitled to a leak adjustment is the full amount of the bill 	tep will be rom the to o one will ed at the portion of 1 and paid 1 plus the d through
5. When a leak is found to be on the customer's side the District will notify the customer than has ten (10) days to present to the District the leak has been fixed or the customer will not be entitled to a leak adjustment the full amount of the bill leak has been found. The customer then has ten (10) days to present to the Distritute leak has been fixed or the customer will not be entitled to a leak adjustment the full amount of the bill	4. Only one (1) leak adjustment will be made per twelve-month period.
April 1, 2017	rict proof t

Jerre A

TITLE Chairman

DATE EFFECTIVE

ISSUED BY

BY AUTHORITY OF ORDER OF THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION
IN CASE NO. _____ DATED _____

Month / Date / Year

(Signature of Officer)

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION OF KENTUCKY EFFECTIVE

JL	JN 1	9	2002
PURSUAN S	T TO	807 DN 9	KAR 5:011. (1)
BY St	shaw	21	Siel
SECRETARY	OF T	ΉE (COMMISSION