Water Deposit Policy For New Customers:

Each new Muhlenberg County Water District customer shall pay a deposit equal to twice one (1) average monthly water bill and shall be paid before water service is supplied. Said deposit shall be held until said customer leaves the system, at which time the customer will be repaid the deposit, plus any interest due, minus any portion of the deposit required to satisfy any delinquencies of bills owed to the District. The District shall pay to the customer interest on the deposit at the rate of interest paid to the District on the funds invest for such deposits, but the rate of interest shall never exceed six percent (6%). The interest on the deposit shall be credited to the customer's account on an annual basis provided the customer's account is current. If it is not current, there shall not be a credit made.
