Dear Ms. Stumbo:

Please accept this letter as notification that Windstream Communications, Inc. ("Windstream") has scheduled a promotion for residential customers to begin December 1, 2008. The promotion will be used as a "Save" or "Winback" tool and will provide 1+ direct dialed long distance service at no charge for up to a two-month period to residential customers who contact Windstream disconnect their service or residential customers who have voluntarily disconnected their service within the last 6 months. At the end of the two-month period these residential customers must select one of the available Windstream long distance plans at the tariffed rates.

This promotional letter filing is also being made electronically. The electronic filing is a true representation of the original document being filed with the Commission.

Please call Stephanie Marsh at 501-748-7897 if you have any questions regarding this letter.

Sincerely,

Mike Gately
