38. RELOCATION OF LINES

When the Cooperative is requested to relocate its facilities for any reason, any expense involved will be paid by the firm, person or persons requesting the relocation, unless one or more of the following conditions are met:

1. The relocation is made for the convenience of the Cooperative
2. The relocation will result in a substantial improvement in the Cooperative facilities or their location.
3. The relocation is associated with other regularly scheduled conversion or construction work and can be done at the same time.
4. The relocation is done in order to comply with the National Electric Safety Code as a result of clearance problems associated with the construction of a permanent residence, barn or mobile home, that will be receiving electric service from the Cooperative and the cost of such relocation does not exceed cost as set forth under member extension policies of the Cooperative. If the cost of relocation does exceed the aforementioned costs, then the member will be required to pay the extra cost and will be refunded this amount under the provision of line extension policy which is applicable.

The member shall be responsible for the cost associated with the relocation of distribution lines for structures or buildings that will not require service from the Cooperative.

Lines may be relocated one time to accommodate a member's request. If it is necessary to relocate a second or additional time(s), the member will be required to pay the full cost of relocation.
