RULES GOVERNING GAS SPACE HEATING SERVICE

On and after May 20, 1949, the Company will undertake to supply service to gas space heating equipment subject to the terms, conditions, and limitations hereinafter set forth, and further subject to the existence or execution of a service contract in accordance with applicable general rules and regulations.

1. The Company will undertake to supply gas service to any individual customer for a new gas space heating load or for an addition to such customer's present gas space heating load provided the total or aggregate rated input capacity of such new or additional space heating load does not exceed 1,500,000 B.t.u. per hour.
2. In order that the Company may be kept currently informed of the extent, location, and character of its gas space heating load, any new or additional gas space heating equipment connected to the Company's lines on and after May 20, 1949 shall be registered with the Company within five days after installation thereof as a condition precedent to the Company's obligation to supply service thereto. Special forms shall be made available by the Company for the purpose of such registration.

TEMPORARY AVAILABILITY SHEET
RELATING TO ALL RATE SCHEDULES

AVAILABILITY

The Union Light, Heat and Power Company (hereinafter called Company) shall restrict and limit its sales of natural gas effective immediately and continuing until the further Order of the Public Service Commission of Kentucky, in the following manner:

- (a) Company shall not serve the requirements of any new applicants for industrial or commercial gas service and shall deny applications for increased requirements of any existing industrial or commercial customer;
- (b) Company shall not serve the requirements of any new residential customers, except those who have applied for and are actually ready for the initiation of gas service prior to March 1, 1973;
- (c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, Company will honor commitments made by it prior to January 26, 1973, for gas service to any residential customer;
- (d) The Company will continue to accept applications for gas service to all potential customers, holding such applications on file according to date received;
- (e) The Company, in conjunction with its TEMPORARY AVAILABILITY SHEET, hereby temporarily suspends its MAIN EXTENSION POLICY as stated on Second Revised Sheet No. 6 of P.S.C. Ky. No. 2; and
- (N) (f) If, on the basis of evidence available to it, the Company concludes that a customer has violated one or more of the above or other Company service regulations dealing with unauthorized use of gas service, it will give notice in writing to the customer of the indicated violation(s) at the customer's address or at the location served, and will undertake to arrange a conference to effect a satisfactory resolution. If customer fails or refuses to appear at such a conference under reasonable conditions and within a reasonable time, Company shall suspend all of his gas service until corrective action has been taken. If, pursuant to such conference, one or more violations are found to have occurred, and if, at or after said conference, the customer fails or refuses to correct or discontinue said violation(s), such customer's gas service will be subject to termination upon 15 days further written notice.
