RE: Qwest Communications Corporation—Notice of Conversion to Limited Liability Company and Name Change

Dear Mr. Derouen:

We are counsel to Qwest Communications Corporation (“QCC”). On December 30, 2008, QCC converted from a corporation to a limited liability company (“LLC”), pursuant to the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act.¹ QCC has become Qwest Communications Company, LLC. (“Qwest LLC”).

QCC’s conversion from a corporation to a limited liability company did not result in any changes to its operations, management, services or rates, or its compliance with its regulatory obligations, in Kentucky. The conversion will be seamless and transparent to, and have no effect on, QCC customers. Nevertheless, QCC provided customers with notice of the name change.

As required by KRS 278.542(2), Qwest LLC is filing an updated registration form with the Commission, signifying that the conversion has been completed. This form, executed on January 2, 2009, is included with this letter. Qwest LLC also will amend the QCC tariffs on file with this Commission to reflect the conversion. Finally, Qwest LLC will make all appropriate filings with the Kentucky Secretary of State.

¹ QCC is authorized to provide competitive local and interexchange services throughout Kentucky, pursuant to authority originally issued by the Commission in Case No. 94-366. Qwest has two utility ID numbers issued by the Commission, 22251087 (CLEC) and 5108700 (IXC).
