Dear Tariff Branch Manager,

By letter dated December 3, 2004, T-NETIX, Inc. ("T-NETIX") requested that the Commission withdraw its pay phone services tariff as it believed that the services included in the tariff had been deregulated as a result of the Order dated August 8, 2000 in Case No. 359. T-NETIX has since learned that, as a provider of inmate payphone services, it is still required to have a tariff on file with the Commission.

It is respectfully requested that the Commission reinstate the T-NETIX pay phone services tariff and disregard its December 3, 2004 withdrawal letter. Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Wayne A. Johnson, II
Vice President & General Counsel
